After losing a dairy shipment in the river, Ronda has to think fast, she has to find a way to replace it.

Luckily for her, there is somebody who can help. Her partner in crime Louis and his special methods of milking never used on a human before.

Hiding out in his house for several days to replenish the shipment, her chest is drained, her massive sacks of flesh used to replenish that which she has lost.

Using toys and his own skill, Louis will drain her of all that nutritious cream, and in the process perhaps grow fond of the taste himself.
